The Living History Magazine

A newsroom made up of historians and academic experts whose ambition is to transmit a taste for history to as many people as possible by explaining the present in the light of the past. A history magazine for the general public that is published every month and is structured around 3 axes :

- TOPICALITY

A unifying content because it is always in connection with the highlights of the moment, whether it is geopolitical issues, social events, cultural news (film/series, exhibitions, books/comics, music), tourism...

- MARKS

In a world of over-information and disinformation, Historia provides a deciphering of the contemporary world and its challenges by putting the facts into perspective in their historical context

- PLEASURE

One of the other missions that the editorial team has set itself is to guarantee a real pleasure to read, whether through the immersive story or through a very visual model.

49,534 copies
streamed monthly
10 issues /year

895,000
readers
every month

31% of BAC+4
54% of CSP+

4 Special editions
per year
